MESSAGE FROM THE DEPARTMENT CHAIR

Welcome Back! I hope everyone had a restful (and productive!) summer. As we move into the fall, I encourage your involvement in the full range of department activities this semester. Your active participation and support have been crucial in molding the department we have today and continues to be crucial in cultivating the department we hope to have tomorrow.

GVPT Welcomes 1 new faculty member this semester:

Dr. Gabriella Lloyd

Dr. Gabriella Lloyd received her Ph.D. in political science from Ohio State University in 2017. She has a B.A. in political science from Florida State University. She comes to us from a postdoctoral fellowship she held with the Institute for Genocide and Mass Atrocity Prevention at Binghamton University, New York.

Gabriella's background is in International Relations and Comparative Politics, with areas of expertise in peacekeeping, human security, human rights, and conflict. More information on her research and teaching experience is available online at gabiellalloyd.com.

One of the recommendations from our recent external review was more frequent faculty meeting. As a result, we will be holding monthly faculty meetings. Our second two faculty meetings will be on October 1st and November 2nd where Captain Kenneth Ecker from the UM Police Department will join us in October to discuss the campus security and in November, we will discuss the most recent graduation survey and undergraduate placement more generally with Katherine Russell from the BSOS Deans Office.

We have two new administrative appointees this fall. Professor Margaret Pearson will serve as Associate Chair, and Professor David Cunningham will serve as the Director of Undergraduate Studies. Please adjust your records accordingly.

I want to thank all of you in advance for being active members in the life of the department.
MESSAGE FROM THE DIRECTOR OF GRADUATE STUDIES

I look forward to another great year. Please stop by 1115B/D Tydings or email me at mhanmer@umd.edu if I can be of any help.

Please join me in welcoming our incoming students.

MESSAGE FROM THE PLACEMENT DIRECTOR

Welcome to the start of the new academic year. I look forward to working with the graduate students as they navigate the job market.

As Placement Director, I am here to help with any issues related to job searches and career planning more generally. Please feel free to ask me questions about any aspect of the process – from thinking about what type... of job to pursue, to applying and interviewing, to seeking job outside academia. I am happy to comment on CVs and job application materials.

For students not yet on the market, don’t wait to ask your questions and learn about the process.

Anyone on the market this year who receives an invitation to interview should immediately contact me to arrange a practice job talk.

Maryland has recently placed graduate students at top departments for tenure-track jobs and post-docs, and I look forward to helping to continue this trend.

Good luck!

Kathleen Cunningham
Director of Placement

MESSAGE FROM THE DIRECTOR OF UNDERGRADUATE STUDIES

Course Waitlists

GVPT does not oversubscribe its courses; all students must adhere to the University’s waitlist policy and procedures. Contact Karmin Cortes if you wish to discuss a student with an extenuating circumstance; however, please keep in mind that there are likely several students on the waitlist who need the course as well.

The University allows the first 5 students on a waitlist to access the course space in ELMS; these students are not officially enrolled in the course and will not appear on the UMEG roster. Students must follow the University's mandatory waitlist check-in procedures if they wish to maintain their spot on a waitlist and/or to confirm a seat issued via the waitlist.

GVPT GRADUATE STUDENT ASSOCIATION
The Graduate Student Association (GSA) represents graduate student interests, serves as a liaison with faculty and the administration, and helps build a sense of community in the department.

GSA participated in orientation on August 21, hosting welcome events and facilitating a peer advising session. The remainder of the year we will be holding monthly meetings, announced via email to all students. The first meeting of the semester will be held on Wednesday, September 12th at 12:30 pm in Tydings 1111. We will take nominations of incoming students interested in serving as First Year Representatives and identify student priorities for the upcoming year. Additionally, on September 15th, we will have a welcome back BBQ for all graduate students.

Current plans for this year include: working with faculty to help new (and current) students understand program timeline and expectations, fostering a stronger graduate student community, and encouraging student participation at sub-field workshops. We will also continue previous successful initiatives of both student-led and faculty-led research, methods, and professional development workshops. If you would like to get in touch with the GSA Co-Chairs, SoRelle Wyckoff and Kee Hyun Park, you can contact them at sorellew@terpmail.umd.edu and khpark@terpmail.umd.edu.

STAFF AND ADMINISTRATION

MAKE-UP EXAMS (Proctoring)
The main office staff does not proctor or oversee make-up exams. Make-up exams will not be held in the GVPT main Office Conference Room.

RETURNING STUDENT PAPERS
The main office staff does not collect or return student papers. If you want to provide a pick-up service, give the students a time when you will be in your office for them to pick the papers up. Leaving papers out for the students to flip through is a violation of student privacy.
privacy. The best suggestion is to ask the students to provide a self addressed and stamped envelope and you will return the papers to them.

Francia, Peter (Ph.D. 2000) Reports that The East Carolina University (ECU) Center for Survey Research completed its inaugural Life, Liberty, and Happiness survey – a project that involves a unique national survey of more than 1,000 Americans, led by a team of researchers at ECU in the Departments of Public Health, Political Science, Psychology, and Sociology. On July 4, the survey’s results from its first report were covered on the NPR national broadcast (https://cpa.ds.npr.org/pre/audio/2018/07/crowder_life_liberty_happiness_wrap.mp3?siteplayer=true&dl=1). FIELD UPDATES - WORKSHOPS and SEMINARS

AMERICAN POLITICS FIELD - WORKSHOPS and SEMINARS

The American Politics Workshop is a bi-weekly research colloquium for faculty and graduate students. The workshop constitutes an ongoing research community where participants present and discuss papers in an informal, supportive environment. Papers are made available via the workshop website in advance of our meetings, and participants are expected to have read them. Discussion leaders are assigned on a rotating basis, matching papers with discussants who share complementary research interests. Many of the papers presented in recent years have gone on to publication in top tier political science journals.

The workshop is especially beneficial for our graduate students. It provides an excellent opportunity to interact with the American Politics faculty outside of the classroom and, for advanced graduate students actively engaged in scholarly research, the workshop can also be an invaluable source of professional advice. The American Politics faculty strongly encourages all of our graduate students to regularly participate in the workshop.
The AP Workshop website is: http://www.gvpt.umd.edu. Click the research tab and then select the American Politics Workshop.

Workshops are held from 11-12:30pm at the locations listed by date. While the workshop focuses on issues in American politics, all faculty and graduate students are welcome to attend.

COMPARATIVE POLITICS FIELD – WORKSHOPS and SEMINARS

Throughout the course of the semester we will hold periodic gatherings for the comparative field, including social events, speakers, and special topic seminars (e.g. how to do research in the field, how to get grants to go overseas). The comparative subfield is putting together a stellar lineup of guest speakers for the Fall. Although the Comparative Politics Workshop focuses on comparative politics, all faculty and graduate students are welcome to attend.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS FIELD/CIDCM – WORKSHOPS and SEMINARS

The international relations workshop brings together faculty and graduate students with an interest in international relations. We invite faculty and graduate students to discuss their latest research; present papers in progress, with a formal discussant; present information for professional development; and invite guest speakers. Students are strongly encouraged to attend and we would also like to see some students present their own work in the workshop. Working papers will be posted on the IR Workshop website at www.gvpt.umd.edu, click on the Research tab and then open the IR workshop schedule as they become available.
Students could present dissertation work or a conference paper. Students interested in presenting their work or would like to act as a discussant should contact Todd Allee at tallee@umd.edu.

POLITICAL THEORY FIELD - WORKSHOPS and SEMINARS

Please watch for emails and newsletters for panels as we schedule them. All graduate students and faculty are welcome, especially those with some interest in wars and/or game theory. A lot of really clever work has been done recently in this area. So even if you don't care at all about wars, and couldn't care less about game theory, you should come just to find out what is going on.

For more information contact Professor James Glass jglass1@umd.edu.

POLITICAL METHODOLOGY & FORMAL THEORY FIELD - WORKSHOPS and SEMINARS

For information and details of the Political Methodology and Formal Theory Field, please contact Professor Sarah Croco scroco@umd.edu.

CENTER ANNOUNCEMENTS

Center for American Politics and Citizenship (CAPC)

Over the summer, 6 students participated in the CAPC internship program. Internship sites included Congressman Steny Hoyer’s D.C. office, the USDA, and Freedom House an independent watchdog organization dedicated to the expansion of freedom and democracy around the world.

Applications for the fall internship program and undergraduate research assistant program just closed. Internship applications for the Maryland General Assembly in the spring will open soon. Please encourage those you know who may be interested to apply.

In early June, our joint poll with the Washington Post was released, which focused on the Maryland gubernatorial election. The poll found that Governor Larry Hogan has high approval and popularity ratings from both Republican and Democratic voters.

“With an approval rating above 50% across almost every category of voters—even among Democrats—Governor Hogan is the counter example to the rampant polarization sweeping the country,” said Associate Professor of Government and Politics Michael Hanmer, research director of UMD’s Center for American Politics and Citizenship (CAPC). “The results from this poll show Marylanders are not discounting Hogan’s achievements just because he’s a member of the Republican Party.”

More information can be found on our website, including a press release, articles, and full results.

❖ Sadat Chair for Peace

On Wednesday, September 5th, the Anwar Sadat Chair for Peace and Development and the College of Behavioral and Social Sciences will be hosting “The Sadat Forum: A Conversation about the Accords’ Impact on U.S. Foreign Policy” to commemorate the 40th anniversary of the Camp David Accords. There will be special messages from President Jimmy Carter and Dr. Jehan Sadat and a panel discussion featuring Daniel Kurtzer, Ellen Laipson, William Quandt, and Shibley Telhami, who will moderate the conversation. The event will take place from 4-5:30pm, with a reception to follow, in Heise Ballroom in Riggs Alumni Center. For more information and to RSVP, please visit: go.umd.edu/SadatForumCampDavid

Later in September, Dr. Shibley Telhami, the Anwar Sadat Professor for Peace and Development, will be traveling to Cairo, Egypt to participate in a forum hosted by the American University in Cairo on “Camp David at 40.” The Sadat Chair will also be hosting a delegation from the Mossawa Center, The Advocacy Center for the Arab Citizens in Israel in late September.

❖ The Bahá’í Chair for World Peace

Deconstructing Race /Reconstructing Difference:
Abstract:
In this moment of a turn to identity politics in the United States, mitigating the detrimental impacts of ideologies and hierarchies predicated on the idea of race is ever more important. Although race is not a scientific fact, it is a social fact that operates through ascribed categories anchored in a white/black binary with other color-coded categories capriciously placed in between. These structured not only accentuate difference; they also sow division. Based on a conceptual framework of “micro-cultures” drawn from analyses of extensive, ethnographic interviews with people who are socially defined within each of the five main, ascribed racial categories in the U.S., this presentation argues for ways to move beyond the severe limitations of current narratives of race and difference. It further argues that the role of education is imperative in understanding the complexities and contradictions of how race and difference are enacted and also critical for challenging and progressively changing these social constructions in the U.S. and internationally.
